RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Greetings from the East

Brethren...As we welcome the arrival of the fall season, we observe the days growing shorter, the skies turning wet, and the trees shedding their leaves. In this natural transformation, we bear witness to the profound miracle of nature, which continues to adapt and change not merely for the sake of change, but out of necessity. It runs contrary to nature's essence to resist change and adaptability. As Freemasons, we comprehend that everything adheres to a natural cycle, and change is also an essential aspect of Masonry both within our Lodge and in our Brotherhood, to adapt to changes in the world around us. This while also maintaining our ancient ritual and traditions.

In October we celebrate Nevada Day commemorating when the Nevada Territory was admitted to the Union by authorization of President Abraham Lincoln. Masonry in Nevada preceded Nevada becoming a State, and there are still a few Lodges whose current Lodge buildings in use today preceded Nevada statehood. I mention this that it attests to the depth of our Fraternity in the State we live going back to its very beginnings and even before that! There are very few organizations still in existence today who can claim that! An important Masonic annual event taking place this month integral to maintaining our ancient ritual and traditions is the Scottish Rite Reunion, for which several Master Masons from our Lodge who are also members of the Scottish Rite will actively participate.

Our October Stated Meeting will be on Wednesday, October 1 st , usual time dinner at 6:30PM following an Octoberfest menu theme followed by meeting at 7:30PM. I look forward to seeing all of my Masonic Brethren then as we continue our Masonic work and fellowship into this beautiful fall season!

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Glen Daily, Worshipful Master

Tidings from the West

Greetings, brothers! I hope this cooler weather is finding you well. I, for one, am always excited for the fall and winter, when I can look forward to the warm smiles of my lodge. We have many major events on the horizon. The biggest being, of course, our annual Grand Lodge communication. This will be taking place here in Reno on November 9-11, at the Peppermill Hotel. I have greatly enjoyed attending the annual communication as it is an outstanding opportunity to see brothers from all over the state. Registration forms can be downloaded from the Grand Lodge website, and must be mailed in no later than October 9th. You should also mark your calendar for December 6 for the upcoming installation of officers for Washoe #35. This will take place at 5 PM. Lastly, I am still working to put together content for next year's Centennial celebration, and I would love to see some pictures and/or artifacts from days gone by in regards to our lodge. Please reach out to me if you have anything to share. Both my email and phone number are listed on the trestleboard.

Yours faithfully and fraternally,

Chad Clarno, SW

Salutations from the South

Hello Brothers!

Is this lovely fall weather helping you to feel re-energized, re-invigorated, and re-freshed? If so, you should join us for the next stated meeting for some refreshment and fellowship with your Lodge! If not, double the reason to make an appearance! Bro. Kris Sorensen and I will be putting together a little Munchen-esque Oktoberfest feast featuring DREI types of wurst, pretzels, German potato salad, and a selection of delicious mustards to accompany the same! There may be some infectious oompah-oompah polka beats going down. There may be delightful German bier on hand to wash down all the delicious food! There may even be a large biergarten tent and a brigade of buxom Teutonic frauleins schlepping multiple steins in each hand! Ok, maybe not the last bit but if you squint your eyes a little perhaps you can imagine it. Come join us for what is sure to be an evening filled with fellowship! Lederhosen optional!

Fraternally yours,

Todd Iverson, Junior Warden

October is an important month for Freemasonry, as several significant dates are celebrated within the Masonic calendar. One of the most important dates in October is the celebration of St. John the Evangelist on October 27th. St. John the Evangelist is one of the patron saints of Freemasonry, and his teachings are highly regarded within the Craft.

Another important date in October is the anniversary of the formation of the United Grand Lodge of England on October 27th, 1813. This event marked a significant milestone in the history of Freemasonry, as it brought together several different Grand Lodges under one governing body.

Additionally, October 13th is celebrated as Yorkshire Day in Freemasonry, which honors the rich Masonic history and traditions in the region. Freemasons in Yorkshire come together to commemorate their heritage and strengthen their bonds of brotherhood.

Overall, October is a month filled with important Masonic dates that serve as reminders of the values and principles that Freemasonry upholds. These celebrations help to unite Masons around the world and promote the ideals of brotherhood, charity, and integrity that are central to the Craft.
